RE: People's Choice Award for Cascadia exhibit in Corvallis, OR Exhibit Dates: July 2 - August 5
Location: Giustina Gallery in the LaSells Stewart Center at Oregon State University, Corvallis, Oregon.

Cascadia - Where Oregon Meets, a traveling photography exhibit is currently on display in Corvallis on the campus of Oregon State University. Attendees at the opening reception voted for the People's Choice Award. The winner is... Eric Valentine, of LaGrande for his lovely image titled "Horseshoe Lake" located in the beautiful Eagle Cap Wilderness. Congratulations to Eric for his early morning, foggy and reflective image. It is gorgeous! Crossroads curated the exhibit which opened at Crossroads in April, then traveled to The Dalles to a pop-up venue for the month of May then on to the OSU campus for July.

The People's Choice award for Baker City was awarded to Lori Rowland of Baker City for her image titled "The Magic of Christmas Morn." A beautiful photograph taken from the foothills of Baker looking over a fog covered city during a full moon setting over the snow covered Elkhorn mountains.

The Dalles choose Vern Bartley of Newport for his image "Yaquina Head Nebula." Another dramatic image with a lovely soft fog element featuring the Yaquina Head Light House.

Each artist receives $500 from the Ford Family Foundation who graciously supported the exhibition, Cascadia.

Congratulations and thank you to Lori Rowland, Eric Valentine and Vern Bartley!
